High Impact Life / Bottom Line Living

Featuring Dr. John Tolson

Dr. John Tolson is a nationally renowned teacher, speaker and author who has spent more than 30 years making a profound impact on the lives of others. As Founder and Chairman of The Tolson Group, he oversees a collection of ministries across the country that specialize in outreach and discipleship training for adults and students. He is credited with establishing the NBA's first Chaplain program in 1978 and over the years has been the Chaplain for teams such as the Houston Rockets, Astros, Oilers and the Orlando Magic. Currently he serves as Team Chaplain for The Dallas Cowboys. His latest workbook, The Four Priorities: Life is Too Short to Get It Wrong, is an adaptation from a successful 40-week discipleship program that he co-wrote for The Gathering. "Achieving balance in all things is the truest measure of success. It's not letting what you don't do well interfere with what you do best." -Dr. John Tolson
